Dear Dr Clarke,

I was looking forward to meeting with you last Tuesday to discuss in person your concerns and the issues you have raised, but I do understand the pressure multiple obligations and tasks place on our time.

In relation to your e-mail to me of 7 August 2012 I note the incorrect use of the term "Federal Judge" in my letter rather than a Division 1B Judge or a Division 1B Magistrate.

In regard to the compounding issues you raise in paragraph 8 of the e-mail I am unable to make comment on the actions of other agencies, Parliamentary Committees or the Minister for Home Affairs.

I would like to reiterate my offer to meet with you, in Canberra, at any mutually agreeable time to discuss these and other issues you have raised in your original letter of 8 July and email of 7 August.

Yours sincerely
